Appointment of Sally Dwyer as Group Director of People

The Quarto Group (Quarto), the leading global illustrated book publisher and distribution group, is pleased to announce the appointment of Sally Dwyer as its first Group Director of People with immediate effect.

Reporting directly to CEO, Marcus Leaver, and a member of the Senior Leadership Team, Dwyer will be responsible for Quarto's talented and creative workforce. Her role will encompass human resources strategy and policy, including talent management and acquisition, organizational design and employee benefits, across Quarto's businesses in the US, UK, Hong Kong, Australia and New Zealand.

Dwyer joins Quarto from MLC Consulting, where she most recently held the role of Managing Director and held interim roles at EY, Deutsche Bank and RBS Markets among others. Dwyer brings extensive experience in HR strategy, talent management and recruitment, organizational development and business analysis developed over her tenure at Barclays and prior to that in international businesses such as Accenture and Unilever.

Dwyer holds an MSc in Social Policy & Planning specializing in Education from London School of Economics, and a Bachelor's degree in Business, Human Resource Management from Griffith University, Australia.

Marcus Leaver, CEO of Quarto, said:

"I'm delighted to welcome Sally to this vital role at Quarto. This appointment represents our unwavering commitment to our people as we make great books and sell them globally. Sally brings extensive experience and expertise in talent management and employee engagement, skills essential to the continued development of our greatest asset - our employees."
